

PILOT PIC (Penn Yan, NY)

POSTED 06/26/2018 14:00

Seneca Flight Operations has been providing safe travel services for over 60 years. Based in Western New York at the Penn Yan Airport (KPEO), we are currently seeking candidates for an FAR 135 PIC position for our Cessna Citation VII and Citation Bravo.

Penn Yan, New York is located in the Finger Lakes Region of Western New York. This is a beautiful area of the country to live and raise a family with excellent schools and very affordable housing. The airport is within an hour drive of Rochester, New York as well as Syracuse and Elmira. We operate all aspects of the Penn Yan Airport per an Agreement with Yates County, New York.

We have company owned hangars in Penn Yan, New York and Janesville, Wisconsin with a full maintenance department in Penn Yan.

Because we are a Part 135 carrier and put Safety above all, random drug and alcohol screening is a necessity. Flight Crews train twice per year with Flight Safety International in San Antonio, Texas (Citation VII) and Orlando, Florida (Citation Bravo). Please be aware that a two year training contract is required for all new employees..

PIC Candidates will possess 1500 or more hours of total flight time, 1000 hours multi-engine, 500 hours turbine. Experience in swept wing aircraft as well as FAR 135 experience is a plus. ATP rating required.

Seneca Flight Operations is a division of Seneca Foods Corporation (NASDAQ: SENE), a $1.5 Billion food processing company with 32 locations across the United States.

Our pilots enjoy a full benefit package including medical, dental, EAP, matching 401K after 1 year of service, a full pension fully paid for by the company and up to 4 weeks vacation as well as company holidays.

We do not utilize a schedule that allows for commuting long distances in order to work here. There is no set schedule - though none of our pilots ever work on Thanksgiving or Christmas and we do have scheduled days off each month for our pilots.
